

SIGNATURE SERIES EVENT CELEBRATING WOMEN PIONEERS

Women in Aerospace invites you to join us in honoring
Anousheh Ansari

Wednesday, March 26, 2008
8:30 a.m. - 10 a.m.

Library of Congress, Members Room

Anousheh Ansari is the Iranian-American co-founder and chairman of Prodea Systems, Inc and a spaceflight participant with the Russian space program. Her previous business accomplishments include serving as co-founder and CEO of Telecom Technologies, Inc. (TTI). The Ansari family is also the title sponsor of the Ansari X PRIZE. On September 18, 2006, a few days after her 40th birthday, she became the first female Muslim and first Iranian in space. Ansari is the fourth overall self-funded space tourist, and the first self-funded woman to fly to the International Space Station.
