For over 30 years, Women in Aerospace (WIA) has been dedicated to increasing the leadership capabilities and visibility of women in the aerospace community. We acknowledge and promote innovative individuals who strive to advance all areas of the aerospace industry.

Our membership, comprised of both women and men, share a passion for a broad spectrum of aerospace issues, including human space flight, aviation, remote sensing, satellite communications, robotic space exploration, and the policy issues surrounding these fields.

What are the Benefits of Corporate Membership?

Enhanced Visibility: Clear recognition of your company as a leading advocate of expanding women's opportunities for leadership and increasing their visibility in the aerospace community.

Diversity and Corporate Social Responsibility: Supplemental career development resources for your firm's employees, enhancing workplace diversity and the extracurricular dimension of the aerospace industry.

Marketing and Business Development: Numerous forums for connecting with senior US government decision-makers, industry officials, and academic thought-leaders in the aerospace community, and the ability to leverage those interactions for business and knowledge generation activities for your firm.

Public Relations: Corporate names and logos are featured on our website and outreach materials; corporate support is noted at our many high-profile events, highlighting your organization's generous sponsorship of WIA's missions and goals.

Early Access: First opportunity to engage and sponsor various WIA programs.
