WOMEN IN AEROSPACE (WIA) FACT SHEET (Current as of March 22, 2018)

What is WIA?

For over 30 years, Women in Aerospace (WIA) has been dedicated to expanding women's opportunities for leadership and increasing their visibility in the aerospace community, both in the US and internationally.

In October 2009, the WIA Foundation was incorporated for the express purpose of providing financial assistance in the form of scholarships to eligible college seniors or rising juniors, beginning in the 2010-2011 academic year.

Our membership, consisting of more than 2,000 individual members, representing 250 companies, and including more than 70 corporate members consisting of both women and men, share an interest in a broad spectrum of aerospace issues.

What are the Benefits of Membership?

- Networking: Formal and informal discussions and interaction with leading aerospace professionals from government, academia and the private sector.
- Programming: Access to and participation in high-quality programs and events featuring topics of critical importance to the aerospace industry.
- Professional Development: Practical, substantive guidance and insight coupled with direct contact with leading industry players to facilitate professional growth and development at all stages of a career.
- Recognition of Technical and Community Accomplishments: A forum to recognize and showcase outstanding women in the aerospace industry for their leadership and achievement.

What are the Benefits of Corporate Membership?

- Enhanced Visibility: Clear recognition of your company as a leading advocate of expanding women's opportunities for leadership and increasing their visibility in the aerospace community.
- Diversity and Corporate Social Responsibility: Supplemental career development resources for your firm's employees, enhancing workplace diversity and the extracurricular dimension of the aerospace industry.
- Marketing and Business Development: Numerous forums for connecting with senior US government decision-makers, industry officials, and academic thought-leaders in the aerospace community, and the ability to leverage those interactions for business and knowledge generation activities for your firm.
- Public Relations: Corporate names and logos are featured on our website and outreach materials; corporate support is noted at our many high-profile events, highlighting your organization's generous sponsorship of WIA's missions and goals.
- Early Access: First opportunity to engage and sponsor various WIA programs.

What are some of our program highlights?

- Senior Leaders Budget Discussion – Join WIA for a round table discussion that will feature a thought-provoking discourse on the Fiscal Year 2019 Budget and beyond. Distinguished leaders from key government agencies will provide members with an exclusive look into forecasts and trends that will influence the budget for the industry in the near future.
- Professional Development that focuses on leadership. We have the WIA Leadership Institute and many webinar options to accommodate various schedules and extend our outreach to remote locations. Some of the webinar topics include: Career Success and Satisfaction, Claiming a Seat at the Table: Strategies for Interrupting Gender Bias at Work, Leading Effective Teams, Beating the Imposter Syndrome, Mentor/Mentee Relationships: Skills for Success, and Change Management.
- WIA Stories: The Journeys of Incredible Women in Aerospace – Join WIA for an intimate gathering of colleagues as a panelist of esteemed women leaders share the story of their personal journey to success. This off the record conversation promises to be filled with helpful advice paired with fantastic stories depicting how each of these incredible women made their mark. Come prepared to network with colleagues and share your own personal story of success.
- Annual Awards Ceremony and Banquet – An annual program to recognize aerospace technical achievements and community outreach by women.
- Annual networking events at the National Space Symposium, AIAA Space Conference and Exhibit.
