

Alexis Sáinz is a Senior Associate in the Washington, DC office of Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy and a member of the law firm's Transportation & Space Group. Ms. Sainz's experience includes representing financial institutions, project sponsors, private equity firms, hedge funds, satellite operators, communications companies, export credit and multilateral development agencies and other project participants in a wide range of structured financings and investment transactions, involving project financings, public offerings, high yield debt, investment grade bonds, mergers & acquisitions, financial restructuring and reorganizations, and in negotiating project contracts.

Ms. Sáinz co-authored the chapter on Commercial Satellite Programs in the Routledge Handbook of Space Law and is a regular speaker at industry conferences, including at the School of ECA Finance, run by TXF and CC Solutions. Ms. Sáinz holds a bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College, a master's degree in Computer Science from American University, where she was a graduate fellow, and a juris doctor from the George Washington University Law School.